

CURRICULUM ASSESSMENT

The curriculum assessment committee is a cell of college and other educational institution which is responsible for making evidence-based recommendation for curriculum modification. It establishes the process and procedures for conducting assessment on campus. It is a process of gathering and analyzing information from multiple sources in order to improve student learning in sustainable ways.

Through assessment criteria the learners are able to know what are expected to do. It shows them how they can demonstrate they have achieved the learning outcomes.

The purpose of each college curriculum assessment committee is to review the status of the college achievement and maintenance of the degree program. The curriculum assessment committee is charged by the faculty senate to foster faculty stewardship of student learning degree program.

The purpose of assessment is to gather relevant information about student interests to make judgments about their learning process.

KEY ELEMENTS OF AN ASSESSMENT PLAN INCLUDE: -

1. Objective of student learning outcomes.
2. The plan will include a variety of measure and methods including both qualitative and quantitative assessment.
3. After implementation of the method of measurement, the result that we will achieved should be clearly described and related to the objective are stated criteria for success.
4. At last we try to use the result in future plan and assessment continuous assessment provides day to day feedback about the learning and teaching process. A good curriculum assessment can reinforce the efficacy of teaching and learning. It also encourages the understanding of teaching as a formative process that evolves overtime with feedback and input from students. This creates good classroom rapport. Student assessment are necessary because:-
  - Throughout a lesson, the teacher might want to check for understanding by using a formative assessment.
  - Assessment also beneficial in the field of diagnostic test by action the teacher want to know the hurdle of teaching procedure and also the problem as well as difficulties of their learner.
  - Through assessment not only teacher knows his teaching efficiency but also student knows his progress. Because it helps them to assess their potential and way of presentation.
